

ATTENTION UPDATE:

Per the CDC recommendation, on April 13, 2022, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) announced that once again it is extending the face mask requirement for all transportation networks, including public transportation, through

May 3, 2022.

THIS MEANS:

Masks are still required on all MART buses and paratransit vans, as well as MART facilities. This also applies to taxi service (JARC/Devens).

NO MASK, NO SERVICE

Masks STILL Required
